SECTION 7: MIGRATION TO HABSHA (ABYSSINIA)

First Migration to Abyssinia (Hijrat-ul-Habasha)

Year: 615 AD (5 years before Hijra to Madinah) Reason: Persecution by Quraysh increased; seek safety in Christian King's land Destination: Abyssinia (modern-day Ethiopia) — ruled by King Najashi (Negus), a just Christian king

First Group (615 AD)

- Led by: Hazrat Jafar ibn Abi Talib (Prophet's cousin)
- Members: 11–12 Muslims (estimates vary)
- Key migrants: Jafar, Asma bint Umais, Uthman ibn Affan, Ruqayyah (Prophet's daughter)

- Duration: About 6 years (returned around 619 AD after hearing of Prophet's uncle Abu Talib's death)

Second Group (616 AD)

- Members: 83-100 Muslims (larger group)
- Led by: Different leadership structure
- Journey: More dangerous; Quraysh sent delegates to King Najashi to extradite them
- King's Decision: King Najashi (Negus) refused to extradite; granted asylum
- Famous speech: King heard Surah Maryam (Chapter 19) recited by Jafar; moved to tears; granted protection

Why Habsha Was Safe

1. Just Christian King: Najashi was known for justice and piety
2. Religious tolerance: Christian kingdom; Muslims shared monotheistic belief
3. Distance from Quraysh: Safe from Quraysh persecution
4. Quraysh's failed delegation: Quraysh sent envoys with gifts but King refused to extradite Muslims

Return to Makkah

- After Abu Talib's death (619 AD), some returned to Makkah
- Some stayed in Abyssinia and migrated to Madinah later
- Some remained permanently in Abyssinia

Significance of Habsha Migration

- First mass migration for Islamic faith
- Demonstrated Prophet's care for followers' safety
- Established Muslims in foreign land maintaining faith
- King Najashi's justice praised in Islamic history

SECTION 8: CHARTER OF MADINAH (SAHIFAT-UL-MADINAH)

Document Details

- Year Written: 622 AD (1 AH) — Shortly after Prophet's arrival in Madinah
- Type: First written constitution; groundbreaking document in history
- Purpose: Establish rules of coexistence between Muslims, Jews, and polytheists in Madinah
- Signatories: Prophet Muhammad ﷺ, Muslim migrants (Muhajirs), Helpers (Ansars), Jewish tribes, Polytheists
- Preserved by: Historian Ibn Ishaq; also mentioned by others
- Length: 47 articles/clauses (traditions record 45-52 depending on source)

Key Provisions

Article	Content
1	Muslims are one Ummah (community) regardless of tribe
2	Muhajirs (migrants) and Ansars (helpers) are brothers; inherit from each other
3	Believers loyal to each other against oppressors
4	Believers will ransom prisoners with kindness & justice
5	No Mumin (believer) will help a Mufis (wrongdoer) against another Mumin
6	Believers united against enemies of Islam
7	Jews who support the Ummah have same rights & protections
8	Jews have freedom of religion; Muslims have freedom of religion
9	All will contribute to defense of Madinah
10	Disputes settled by appeal to Allah and Prophet
11	No harm/damage without permission
12	No betrayal allowed
13	Fugitives not harbored
14	Those who war on anyone in the Ummah are enemies of all
15	Hypocrites & trouble-makers excluded from rights
16	No fighting in sacred months without provocation
17	All equally protected by law regardless of origin
18	Freedom of religion guaranteed — "To me my religion, to you your religion"

Significance

- First Written Constitution: Madinah Charter is considered first written constitution in Islamic history
- Religious Pluralism: Allowed Christians, Jews, and polytheists to live with Muslims
- Individual Rights: Protected life, property, and religion
- Legal Framework: Disputes resolved by Quranic law and Prophet's judgment
- Inspiration for later Islamic law: Formed basis for Islamic constitutional thought

Breakdown Later

- Battle of Badr (624 AD): After Muslim victory, confidence increased
- Jewish Tribe Dealings: Some Jewish tribes violated charter; expelled for sedition
- Bani Qaynuqa: Expelled after Badr
- Bani Nadir: Expelled later; attacked Prophet
- Bani Qurayza: Final Jewish tribe; conflict over Trench War

SECTION 9: TREATY OF HUDAYBIYYAH (DETAILED)

Treaty Details

- Date: 6 AH (March 628 AD)
- Location: Hdaybiyyah (valley near Makkah, about 10 miles away)
- Parties: Prophet Muhammad ﷺ and Quraysh of Makkah
- Duration: 10 years non-aggression pact
- Mediator: Suhail ibn Amr (Quraysh negotiator)

Background

- Prophet ﷺ intended to perform Umrah (pilgrimage) with 1,400-1,600 followers
- Quraysh blocked passage; would not allow entry to Makkah
- Negotiations ensued; resulted in treaty

Terms of Treaty (Seemingly Harsh, But Strategic Victory)

Term	Significance
10-year peace	No fighting for decade; breathing space for Islam
Muslims return without Umrah	Disappointed followers; seemed like loss
Pilgrimage next year	Could perform Umrah in 7 AH
Free travel	Muslims could travel freely for 3 months
Prisoner exchange	Each side released prisoners
Defectors allowed	If defected to Quraysh, they'd be returned; Muslims defecting not returned
No bearing arms	Muslims could only carry swords in scabbards
Tribes free to choose	Each tribe could ally with either side

Initial Reactions

- Sahaba's disappointment: Companions felt humiliated; seemed like defeat
- Umar ibn Khattab's objection: Questioned Prophet's decision; said "Are we not on right path?" (Hadith)
- Abu Bakr consoled: Assured victory would come

Why It Was Strategic Victory

1. Recognition: Quraysh accepted negotiations as equals; implicit recognition of Muslims' power
2. Breathing space: 10 years to consolidate Islamic power
3. Recruitment: Many tribes joined Islam during peace period

4. Quraysh violation: Quraysh violated treaty in 2 years by helping Bani Bakr tribe attack Quraysh ally Khuza'a tribe → Conquest of Makkah justified
5. Surah Al-Fath: Quran called Hudaybiyyah a "manifest victory" (Fath)

Later Violation

- 690 AD (2 years later): Bani Bakr (allied with Quraysh) attacked Khuza'a tribe (allied with Muslims) in sacred month
- Prophet's response: War justified; led to Conquest of Makkah in 8 AH
